

5.200 EMPLOYEE ETHICS

All employees of Colegio Franklin Delano Roosevelt are expected to maintain a high standard of conduct in their private and professional lives. The Board believes that the faculty and staff serve as role models for the students of Colegio-FDR and are thus expected to exemplify highly ethical behavior both at school and within the community and in the way they conduct and communicate their private lives. The Head of School shall make the employees aware of this expectation, emphasizing the areas of substance abuse, inappropriate conduct with students, use of social media and the customs and laws of Peru. Instances of inappropriate conduct with students can result in immediate dismissal.
