

CATEGORY: Responding to disclosure	Case Study # 15
TITLE: Gender and cultural bias	DATE: 12-1-2017
SUB-TITLE: Peer-on-peer abuse
LOCATION: Europe
An introverted and somewhat shy 7th grade boy new to the school was shown violent pornography on a computer by 'older boys' as part of an 'initiation'. The student did not disclose until exhibiting signs of PTSD which included trauma surrounding use of school computers. The school's response was 'boys will be boys'. The parents did not push for further action by the school as 'other boys were okay' following the 'initiation'.
