

Communications Internship

Thank you for your interest in interning at the International Centre for Missing & Exploited Children (ICMEC). Interns contribute substantially to the work of ICMEC, and ICMEC's staff work closely with interns to make the experience as rewarding as possible.

The International Centre for Missing & Exploited Children (ICMEC) is a private, nonprofit organization, established 20 years ago. We work to make the world safer for children by eradicating child abduction, sexual abuse, and exploitation so that no child stands alone. We advocate, innovate, train, and collaborate to protect the world's children.

We ADVOCATE for children around the world by proposing changes to laws, treaties, and systems based on rigorous research and the latest technology.

We INNOVATE by partnering with leading technology companies to identify and develop new global solutions that protect children from abduction, sexual abuse, and exploitation.

We TRAIN partners on the front lines by providing tools to professionals who interface with children to improve prevention, facilitate treatment for victims, and increase the efficacy of the identification and prosecution of people who victimize children.

We COLLABORATE with key stakeholders by building international networks of professionals across disciplines to anticipate issues, identify gaps, and develop cross-cutting solutions.

As the workload of ICMEC continues to grow and resources are stretched, the contributions of interns are extremely important. ICMEC interns who share the same belief in our goals help to make the success stories happen. ICMEC offers full- and part-time internships each academic semester. Successful applicants will be highly motivated students with excellent communications skills, strong interest in digital media, and a passion for public interest work.

The Communications Intern will support the work of the communications team to implement the organization's marketing and communications strategy by helping to:

- produce a series of Child Protection TV videos (i.e., filming, audio, editing) for various social media platforms;
- assist with development and design of digital content, publications, web communications, and web graphics;
- take headshots and other photographs as needed;
- provide general support of product marketing programs, with special emphasis on marketing and promotion initiatives;
- create, edit, and organize content for digital and print properties for a variety of audiences;
- assist with strategic planning of new marketing campaigns; and
- assist other departments with communications and marketing-related activities as needed.

Successful intern candidates will have a solid knowledge of and experience with:

- filming/video recording;
- setting up microphones and managing audio;
- using software for video editing;

- editing video for a green screen; and
- using Photoshop, Illustrator and other graphics programs for to develop graphics;
- be organized and detail-oriented; and
- be able to work independently and complete projects quickly with a focus on quality and accuracy.

What are the requirements to intern at ICMEC?

The nature of ICMEC's activities requires that Communications Interns:

- Be available to work 12 to 15 weeks, at least 15 hours per week (20+ hours preferred) during the Fall or Spring semesters;
- Be available to work 8 to 12 weeks, at least 20 hours per week (30+ hours preferred) during the Summer term;
- Undergo initial and periodic background checks; and
- Have completed at least two (2) years of undergraduate studies.

Is the internship paid?

All internships are unpaid, though ICMEC does provide a small stipend to help defray commuting costs. Internships also may be granted academic credit (please refer to your school's internship/externship requirements).

Does ICMEC provide housing?

ICMEC does not provide housing for interns nor do we provide a stipend to cover living expenses.
